The Honor Guard provided guard duty and led the Rosary for Deputy Grand Knight Dale Shirek's wake service and then processed at his funeral, May 13th and 14th.

The Honor Guard then processed at Assumption Graduation, May 22.

50 attended the Mother's Day dinner, May 11th. We thank Faithful Friar Fr. Ashbeck for leading us in prayers.

State Youth Contests at Assumption, May 2nd.

Chairman Duane Spinler thanks all who helped. Worker recruitment went well this year and all volunteers performed well.

Tootsie Roll Drive, May 8th

Chairman John Seeney, Jr. thanks all who helped. As last year, we solicited at only the two Quality Foods Stores and for just one day. Solicitations were up at $1615. $2,116 was sent to State.

Council Brat Fry, May 9th at West Grand Quality Foods Pat Dederich reported another successful brat fry and thanks all who helped. This was a Council fund raiser.

Our new Blackstone Grill

Pat Wilkinson thanks Fleet Farm for donating half the price for a new Blackstone grill. The grill was needed as our customers are asking for hamburgers.

Cor meeting, May 28 at OLQOH

Eight attended. Topic: Salvation. We must say yes to Jesus, take up his Cross and follow him. His Cross destroyed death and restored life i.e. salvation. Salvation for Catholics is an ongoing process. We simply can't say we are saved. We must follow God's Word all our lives or follow a conversion process when returning to our Lord.
